- Class Officer Applications can now be found on Canvas or hard copies are available in the Guidance Office. Students who wish to be elected as a class officer must be in good standing. Forms will be due back by THIS Friday, August, 23rd to the Guidance Office. Voting will take place on September 10th.
- ATTENTION KEY CLUB MEMBERS and STUDENTS THAT WANT TO JOIN KEY CLUB:
We will have a very short meeting Wednesday before school and/or Wednesday after school. If you can't make it to either meeting please see Mrs. Krider sometime during the day. We meet in the APEX Lab Room G220.
- 2nd Annual Hall of Knights Class
The Hall of Knights class of 2019 will be inducted on September 21st with a banquet to be held at North Clay Middle School. The Hall of Knights class for 2019 will include: Bob Medworth-former teacher and band director at Northview, Jan Gambill-former teacher, coach, and athletic director, Theresa Tribble- entrepreneur, Steve Kidwell-banker/businessman, Kenny Rowan- State Trooper former director of Indiana gaming, CDR Tad Robbins, USN-Naval officer. The inductees will be welcomed to Northview on Friday September 20th to meet with the student body, and also be introduced at the Homecoming Football Game. The following evening is the induction dinner at North Clay Middle School beginning at 6:00. Tickets are available for the dinner and induction ceremony on the 21st, tickets are $20 and will be available thru September 13th and can be purchased at Northview High School. Sponsorships and corporate tables are available contact Scott Buell or Craig Trout at Northview High School if you are interested.
- Signups for Fall Homecoming Court and Queen will be available on the Guidance Canvas page starting Monday, August 19 and will close at the end of the school day (3:15 pm) on Friday, August 30. Only students wanting to run for court or queen need to sign up; not those wanting to escort. See Mrs. LeMay or Mrs. Mesanovic for any questions.

- Any student who would like to gain volunteer experience, or help out in our community, the State Farm, Be a Good Neighbor Program has some opportunities available to gain volunteer hours. August 24th students can help volunteer at the dog park in Craig Park from 9-12. September 21st students can do some volunteer work at the Clay County Fairgrounds from 9-12, and October 4th students can volunteer at the Chili Cook-off @ Northview High School from 5-7. Please contact Jenni Marietta at State Farm (812) 420-2349 or email her at jenni.marietta.d00k@statefarm.com.
- Attention students: If you are a caring, responsible student and would like to help mentor an elementary student, then the Big Brother Big Sister program is for you. To participate, stop by the Guidance Office and get an application. All returning and new Bigs will need to complete an application. (Returning Bigs will have a shorter application this year). Any high school student can apply but male students are especially needed due to the high demand for big brothers. Please fill out and return all forms to the Guidance Office no later than Friday, August 30th.
