Reminder for seniors.... The Hunting with Hunter Harrison Scholarship Application is still available in the guidance office. It must be completed and returned to the guidance department by December 18.

Thursday is the deadline for turning in your Angel Tree gifts. There are still a few tags on the tree, so if you can help out by purchasing a gift for a child in need, grab a tag and go shopping! All gifts should be placed UNWRAPPED under the tree in the auditoria by Thursday. Thank you for making Christmas a little brighter for these children.

Students: Prior to Christmas break, all food and trash must be removed from your locker. We do not want mice.

Long overdue library books need to be turned in before Christmas break.
