Teaching and Learning

Minimal Spread (Blue)

District/School Considerations:

Traditional Instructional Model

- Teachers can conduct traditional classroom instructional practices, while utilizing social distancing and the wearing of face coverings, if mandated or if social distancing cannot be maintained
- P.E. equipment and recess equipment may be used; equipment should be sanitized daily
- Students in P.E. classes and at recess may remove face coverings when outdoors or when maintaining social distancing indoors

Moderate Spread (Yellow)

District/School Considerations:

Utilize all "Additional efforts" strategies listed in the Blue Column of Teaching and Learning

Traditional Instructional Model

- P.E., band, choir, and other similar subjects can conduct traditional lessons as long as social distancing is practiced and face coverings (masks or shields) are worn

Moderate to High Spread (Orange)

District/School Considerations:

Utilize all "Additional efforts" strategies listed in the Blue Column of Teaching and Learning

High Spread (Red)
