

Kindergarten News

September 16- September 20

Thank you to everyone who came to the parent meeting. It is important to work together for your child's education. Please continue working at home with your child. I will begin report card testing soon! Please continue working on letter naming, sounds, recognizing numbers 0-10, writing numbers 0-10, and sight words. These are a few things that will be tested on the report card.
