

Kindergarten News

September 3-September 6

Please continue working on our sight words and recognizing letters with your child. The students should be able to write the numbers 0-9, count to 30, and be practicing writing their name correctly. Please look over the information on the back of the newsletter. It shares the importance of reading with your child each night.

Other News

* I will have a short parent meeting on Monday, September 9th. We will discuss assessments and other important information. The meeting will start at 5:30 in the classroom.

Thanks to everyone who sent in snacks! I have sent home a new calendar for September. Please send in enough snacks for 25 students.

*Please practice putting on and tying shoes with your child. With kindergarten standards we do not have time to work on tying shoes.
