CLASS Updates

ATTENTION! Parents, Guardians, and Students, Clay Community Schools is introducing eLearning Days this school year.

On September 18, Clay Community Schools will be having our first planned eLearning Day. Students will not be in attendance but will have work to do on this day. The work may be completed in the packet we send home or online through Google Classroom. At this time, we recommend completing work via the packet. Students will have five school days to complete and return the work. If you have further questions, please refer to the district website and our eLearning tab.
