News:

Students will begin writing their homework and behavior chart color in their agenda each night. Please remember to check and sign that each day.

I will begin checking sight words this week and sending home a list for students to work on. I check these each Friday.

Students will need to keep their fluency sheet in their folder all week long (they will get these next week). Students will read their fluency sheet to me on Fridays. If I think they need more practice, they will keep reading the same sheet the following week. The fluency sheets will slowly get harder throughout the year.
