

Douglas S. Inman Memorial Scholarship

The Douglas S. Inman Memorial Scholarship was created in 2012. Mr. Inman served as the first Clay City Elementary School Principal for 31 years prior to his retirement in 2001. He coached many sports, enjoyed playing music and supported many community activities.

In his memory family, friends and community organizations have donated to this scholarship to help a Clay City High School senior attend college. The scholarship, administered by Mr. Inman's immediate family, will be awarded annually. The scholarship is a one-time award of $400.

Criteria for this scholarship are as follows:

- Must be a senior at Clay City High School
- Must be interested in majoring in elementary education
- Must show positive leadership ability while in high school
- Must be involved in school and community activities

Applicants should provide two letters of reference. Include a letter from a teacher regarding the student's academic potential, achievements and career interest. A second letter should be from a person attesting to a student's character beyond the classroom (minister, coach, extracurricular sponsor, employer, community leader, etc.)

Please send this application, a high school transcript and two letters of recommendation to the Clay City High School guidance office by MAY 3
