discredit ~ to harm someone's reputation. "The politician used dirty tricks to discredit his opponents."

trifling ~ minor. "A stubbed toe is a trifling medical problem compared to a broken leg."

embellish ~ to decorate or add untrue but interesting details. "I embellished my story of why I was absent with details about an encounter with Elvis and a UFO."

reprehensible ~ very bad. "The students were suspended because of their reprehensible behavior."

pragmatic ~ realistically sensible; practical. "The pragmatic customer put a teabag under the table to balance the leg."

“Yesterday is history. Tomorrow’s a mystery.
Today is a gift; that’s why it’s called the present.”
